Our purpose is to help support and nurture the whole child intellectually, socially, emotionally, physically, and spiritually, and to support and encourage families.

Program Goals

To offer children opportunities to:

1. grow in understanding of and respect for self, family, and others in the world.
2. develop social skills that will foster healthy interactions with others.
3. learn through creative play and the joy of discovery.
4. connect with and develop a love for the natural world.
5. practice and build developmentally appropriate skills.
6. experience a variety of sensory activities.
7. appreciate creative expression in music, art, and movement.
8. express themselves verbally.
9. think and solve problems.
10. receive and extend trust and love.
11. learn developmentally appropriate vocabulary and information in many different fields such as science, social sciences, and literature.
12. begin to know and appreciate God as creator and friend, to feel loved by God, and to recognize one's place as a child of God.

$50.00 Referral Tuition Credit for 2015-2016

- When you talk with other families who may be interested in our program, you may give them this voucher slip.
- They may present the voucher when they enroll.
- The $50.00 credit will be issued to the referring family after the NEW family has enrolled at least one child and has paid tuition for three months for the 2015-2016 school year.
- For currently enrolled families, the credit will be applied to the family's 2015-2016 account.
